April 17 General Meeting

The Old Towne Preservation Association invites you to the first general meeting of the year on Thursday, April 18, 6:30 p.m., at the Orange Public Library. Join us as History Center staff walk us through how to use the center, how to research the history of your old towne home, and all the other available historical resources offered. Covering the period 1871 to the present, the center offers a rich and diverse collection of books, periodicals, photographs, manuscripts, maps, pamphlets, ephemera and artifacts. This is a great opportunity to learn how many previous owners lived in your home, see old photos of your house and other anecdotes about our unique historical heritage. We'll see you on Thursday, April 18. Lite fare will be served. See you there!

The True California Adventure: Preservation's Wild Ride

Historic preservation will take center as the 38th Annual California Preservation Conference celebrates California's world-famous cultural and historic heritage May 1-3. The conference will also explore a range of thought-provoking topics which address the future of preservation in the great Golden State.

The conference theme, "The True California Adventure: Preservation's Wild Ride" will feature dozens of sessions—from seminars and panel discussions to mobile sessions and study tours—which delve into traditional notions of historic preservation and engage new audiences in setting its course for the future. This event will bring together an influential group of preservationists, architects, city planners, historians, tourism professionals, as well as a variety of stakeholders.

A number of special tours to notable historic and cultural sites will be offered. Sites include Old Towne Orange, Chapman University, Anaheim Citrus Packing House, Old Orange County Courthouse, Crystal Cove State Park, Helena Modjeska Historic House and Gardens, Crystal Cathedral and more!

Do you want a front row seat at the premier statewide preservation conference? Volunteers are needed. Volunteer for a workshop, event or tour and attend it for free!

Save the Date

We're Having dinner!

The Old Towne Preservation Association's 19TH ANNUAL PRESERVATION AWARD DINNER GALA is set for

5:30 p.m., Sunday, June 2
at the Woman's Club in Old Towne. Last year's award gala drew more than 150 Old Towne neighbors and community leaders for an evening of great food, fun and fellowship.

Awards will be given in recognition of significant improvements and enhancements of Old Towne homes, commercial buildings and other properties. Keep an eye open for prospective award nominations throughout Old Towne and SUBMIT A NOMINATION, ACCEPTED UNTIL MAY 4. You can find the nomination form in this newsletter or on the OTPA website.

www.otpa.org

A Save-the-Date postcard will be mailed soon with ticket prices and reservation information. Tickets are priced at cost, since the awards dinner gala is not a fundraiser, but an opportunity for members and others who live or work in Old Towne to come together socially.

If you'd like to serve on the planning committee, please email chairman Sandy Quinn at sandyquinn@earthlink.net. 🍊
